

CONCEPT NOTE – B.A. HONOURS (HUMANITIES & SOCIAL SCIENCES)

Based on the meta-college concept, B.A. Honours (Humanities & Social Sciences) is a 3-year Under-Graduate Degree programme started in the year 2012, at Cluster Innovation Centre, University of Delhi. The programme fosters interdisciplinary approach to the study of Humanities and Social Sciences, aiming to promote holistic education. Students benefit from the eclectic knowledge reservoir available at CIC from the areas of Computer Sciences, Design Innovation, Environmental Science, Geography, Historical Tourism, Literature, Mass Communication & Journalism, Natural Sciences, and Psychology. The curriculum is dispensed using a combination of classroom teaching, project-based learning, experimentation, group discussions, presentations, industry interactions and exposure, internships, and fieldwork.

The programme has a unique and innovative course structure which engenders creative out of the box thinking. A student gets opportunity to design his/her own course and use the resource pool available at CIC and in various colleges of the University of Delhi to choose papers that justifies her/his specialization in any one of the four streams being offered namely Art & Design, Counselling, Historical Tourism & Journalism.

On completion of the course students will be expected to have acquired the skills of effective communication, critical thinking, social research methods and social outreach. Students completing the B.A. Honours (Humanities & Social Sciences) Programme will be eligible for any MA Programme at University of Delhi and other institutions and universities of India.

The course allows:
